REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Ruffin Middle School continues to prepare students to meet the challenges of the assessment system by using programs such as PACT Coaching and Challenge the PACT. Teachers utilize PACT-style questions on teacher-made assessments. Academic plans are written for students scoring Below Basic on the PACT. These students also have the opportunity to participate in a PACT Reading, PACT Creative Writing, and PACT Math classes along with a lab setting utilizing the Skills Tutor and ORCHARD programs for additional assistance in all core courses. Title One funds, along with the Twenty-First Century and Community in Schools grants, allows our school to provide a PACT Math/Science Tutorial Program and the After-School Program. A school-wide Character Education Program, academic and behavioral incentives, partnerships with the Alcohol & Drug Abuse Commission, Educational Talent Search, and the Clemson Youth Leadership Program, along with school organizations such as Sisters In Action, Men Above the Crew, Peer Mediation, Just Say No Club, individual and small group counseling sessions, and the Jr. Beta Club support students' motivation and self-concept to motivate them to function at their best. A Comprehensive Career Guidance Program coupled with career education classes and a grant written with the University of South Carolina-Salkehatchie gave students many opportunities to explore careers, occupations, and post-secondary institutions.

Ruffin Middle School's test data continues to show gains, over the past four years, in English language arts and mathematics. Continued curriculum alignment and calibration, innovative strategies, and new programs are used to improve the areas of science, social studies, language arts, and mathematics.

This has been a most productive year. We still face obstacles that present challenges; however, with the continued support of our parents, community, and district office, we will meet and exceed the goals and challenges set before us.

Harry Jenkins, Principal Dorothy Smoak, School Improvement Council Chairperson
